

JESSE CAMPBELL is a curator and arts administrator living on Treaty 6 Territory in Prince Albert, SK. Her background is in art history, with an interest in representations of interiority and domestic spaces. Jesse received her BA at the University of Saskatchewan (2010) and her MA at Utrecht University (2012), and has held research, teaching, and curatorial positions at the Mann Art Gallery, University of Saskatchewan, and Barber Institute of Fine Arts.

She currently enjoys working independently on a variety of creative projects with artists, organizations, and municipalities in Saskatchewan. Jesse believes in living a life guided by art and that art creates meaningful communities and spaces.